All New Market Hall Comedy Club Camp for March Break

Registration is open for Market Hall's March Break camp with veteran theatre artist and all around 'funny guy', Phil Oakley.

Kids aged 10 + will be yukking it up at the Hall as part of a weeklong March Break camp that ends with a Friday afternoon performance for family and friends on the Market Hall stage.

Phil Oakley is the Artistic Director of Heritage Pavilion Stage and a professional theatre artist who currently conducts drama and performance sessions in local schools. This is Phil's seventh year teaching at Market Hall and this is an all new program that he has developed especially for this week.

"Comedy workshops are my favourite to teach" says Phil. "I've taught many different classes over the years but I'm always excited about the improv sessions. You just never know what you're going to get. Every group has its own dynamic and the kids feed off each other – it's always unpredictable and always fun".

Market Hall also has a full program of summer camps. Those camps fill up every year so it is recommended that you sign up for advance notice of registration at the Market Hall website www.markethall.org to make sure your family doesn't miss out. General Registration for summer camps begins in February.
