Mudmen To Perform at Market Hall!

When? Saturday, January 16, 2016 - 8:00pm

The Mudmen are a Celtic Rock Band who's high energy performance has gained international acclaim. A six piece band featuring dual bagpipes, The Mudmen were founded by The Campbell Brothers in 1998 and now have 8 studio cd's building a resume and a legion of fans from all over the country.

Past accomplishments include 6 Music Video's on Much Music and signing with EMI Records from 2000-2004. More recently, their accomplishments include the new CBC "Hockey Night in Canada" theme song, the 1983/84 Edmonton Oilers Reunion with Wayne Gretzky and teammates, the Commonwealth Stadium with Sydney Crosby, and a 3 month tour with Johnny Reid, his PBS Special and the CCMA's.

The Mudmen have met and performed for the Queen and have been honored to entertain and share the stage with numerous celebrities over the years including Eugene Levy, Martin Short, Paul Shaffer, William Shatner, The Guess Who, Gordon Lightfoot, and more.

Don Cherry and Ron MacLean have featured Music by the Mudmen on Rock'em Sock'em 9,19,20,24,27, Coache's Corner, and during the nationally televised making of the new CBC hockey anthem when Ron MacLean stated: "The Mudmen... we love 'em".
